

MONTEPULCIANO & CORTONA WINE TOUR

Montepulciano: Fascinating city built on a limestone ridge, surrounded by ancient walls and fortifications which Cosimo I de 'Medici. The city is characterized by Renaissance palaces and a long course on the rise that reaches the large central square. The landscape and views of the Tuscan hills, give an unforgettable experience.

Famous for its Vino Nobile that thanks the geographical position, altitude and microclimate make the Sangiovese grape variety of Tuscany an excellent wine

PROGRAM OF FOOD AND WINE TOUR :

Departure from Arezzo to Montepulciano direction along streets bathed in velvety valleys of the Val di Chiana, between the cultivation of orchards and farms of the famous Chianina Cow. Arriving in Montepulciano.....

once we got to the village, a short break with coffee or cappuccino and visit the village of Montepulciano, famous for its Gothic architecture. transfer to the winery for wine tasting tour with a description of the variety, history and tradition of the cellar.

Departure for the magnificent medieval town located in the hills: Cortona 500 meters high, from which you can admire the entire Chiana valley, Lake Trasimeno and the volcanic landscapes of Mount Amiata.

Lunch in a typical restaurant with local products, and after a visit to the medieval village. Cortona is characterized by narrow lanes and the central course Ruga Piana with the shops and local craft shops, until you get to the main square dominated by the medieval palace.

GENERAL INFO:

Wine and food expert English Speaking guide
Wine tasting in one prestigious wineries
Visit 1 historical hamlet
Olive oil tasting
Air conditioning minivan with English speaking driver
Fuel charge, parking fee, highways fee
Lunch in a local restaurant (2 course meal with wine and water)

Booking: Reservations must be made about 1-2 months before, especially during the high season or harvest periods (September - October) due the availability

Schedule time : Morning departure at 8 a.m. returning in the late Afternoon around 6 p.m.

How to book

If You require more details and information please contact us

info@mangiardivino.com -- fabmerli@gmail.com

+ 39 327 015 8492